Biomethane – a new fuel for vehicles and heating

John Baldwin, Managing Director, CNG Services

John Baldwin has been the leading promoter of biomethane to grid and biomethane as a vehicle fuel. His company, CNG Services, developed the concept for the United Utilities-National Grid project at the Davyhulme sewage works and are working on 20 projects to create biomethane, inject it into the gas grid and fuel vehicles with it.

This briefing will provide an insight into:

- market developments
- the technologies for biogas clean-up,
- the biomethane vehicles available in the UK
- the economics and CO<sub>2</sub> outcome

Thursday 1 October 2009

The business of carbon

Dr Veronica Cloke Browne FEI, Partner, BRAVE Partners LLP

Dr Christopher Cloke Browne, Partner, BRAVE Partners LLP

The economics of renewable energy business ideas often rely on the state of the carbon markets. As America tells the world that it is embracing carbon trading, BRAVE partners, Veronica and Christopher Cloke-Browne analyse the carbon markets and the opportunities that they are opening to commercial enterprise.

- Has America fully moved to a cap-and-trade policy?
- The carbon markets and the impact of America
- Business opportunities arising out of the carbon markets
