Visit to the

City Business Library

1 Brewers' Hall Garden (off Aldermanbury Square), London EC2V 5BX

Thursday 24 September 2009

3pm – 4.30pm approx

The City Business Library will be moving to the Guildhall in 2010. Before they go join their enthusiastic and highly skilled staff for a tour of their practical business information resources, including business directories, company information databases, economic background reports, business periodicals and financial and trade statistics. Refreshments will be provided!

More information about the City Business Library can be found at:

<http://www.cityoflondon.gov.uk/citybusinesslibrary>

This visit is free to IFEG members but non-members are welcome to become members and attend. If the visit proves too popular then a waiting list will be in operation and priority will be to current IFEG members.

If you wish to join this visit please return the attached form by Monday 21st September 2009
